Secrets of Antrigravity and Warp Drives

Russell Anderson

This extensive workshop will teach you hands-on techniques for generating electromagnetic and electrostatic propulsion fields for moving and levitating objects, scale-model aerospace craft, and driving objects through space. You will learn how to directly apply the patents and decades of research from Thomas Townsend Brown, the late Professor John RR Searl, David Hamel, and Otis T. Carr. Contemporary working devices such as the Andersen Beamship series antigravity flying models and the new Gravillade/Beamship Ultra (Andersen/ Chekurkov) will be examined in detail. You will gain hands-on experience with generating electrostatic force fields and sonic levitation fields. Generators and other devices for propulsion and passive defense based on the patented Prof John RR Searl technology [US Patent No. 9,871,431 B2 SPINTRONIC GENERATOR, (Jan. 16, 2018)].

You will learn the Award-winning Beamship Technique, which is based on the TT Brown Electrokinetic Apparatus which I demonstrated in Reno, Nevada in late June of 2000 with 1-meter diameter flying saucers in horizontal propulsion. Since inertial mass is canceled by antigravity methodologies, you will learn how these techniques and patented technologies are true warp drives for FTL transportation across the vastness of interplanetary and interstellar space in reasonable time and economy.

A few Antigravity devices such as my Beamship and the new heavy-lift Beamship Ultra will be available for study and for sale. This is your chance begin to help unravel the secrets of antigravity and warp drive propulsion this summer!
